

MET project

The scientific project of the management and territories team covers the following two areas of research:

- * The description, understanding and evolution of managerial practices in the territories where they are used
- * The study of the influence of the territories on the managerial practices mobilized